CREATION OF THE WORLD In the beginning, the world was without form and empty. It was very dark and covered with water. God decided to create the sky and the earth and created the world in this order: On the first day, God said, "Have light." The light was seen and began to exist. God saw that the light was good and made a separation between the light and the darkness. God called the light ...

Creation Myths of the Ancient World Creation myths in Egypt, Mesopotamia, and Greece generally express the idea of the creation and defense of an ordered cosmos from out of primordial chaos. Many connections can be made among these different mythic traditions in their attempts to make sense of the natural world. For example, the idea of water as the primordial source of life can be found in ...
